Dear Allen:

This is just a note to thank you for your letter of October 29 enclosing Hamilton Armstrong's invitation for me to prepare an article for the winter issue of FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

Although I greatly appreciate having your recommendation on this matter, I do not feel that I could prepare such an article at this time. In view of your interest I am enclosing a copy of my letter to Mr. Armstrong.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely,
(S)
Richard Nixon

Dear Mr. Armstrong:

Allen Dulles has forwarded your letter of 23 October, and I want you to know how much I appreciate the invitation you extended for me to write an article for FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

STAT  As my Assistant, Mr. McWhorter, has already advised I would certainly like to be able to accept your cordial and tempting invitation. Unfortunately, however, my schedule at present is such that I do not feel it would be possible for me to find sufficient time to prepare an article for your winter issue that would be up to what I know are the high standards of your publication.

I understand from Mr. McWhorter that in view of this you would like me to consider preparing an article for the following issue which has a February 15 deadline. I hope to be able to do so at that time, and in any event I will be in touch with your office about this by the middle of January.

With every good wish,

Sincerely,

Richard Nixon
